

DAF LF

Year: 2001

Description:

The DAF LF is a series of light to medium-duty trucks designed for urban and regional distribution. It offers excellent maneuverability, a spacious cab with easy entry/exit, and good visibility. The LF is known for its low operating costs and is available with various body options to suit different applications.