

DAF CF

Year: 2000

Description:

The DAF CF is a versatile truck series suitable for a wide range of applications including regional distribution, construction, and municipal services. It offers a good balance of maneuverability and load capacity, with various axle configurations available. The CF is known for its reliability and ease of body mounting.