

Volvo FM

Year: 1998

Description:

The Volvo FM is a versatile truck range suitable for regional transport, light construction, and distribution. It offers good maneuverability and visibility, making it well-suited for varied applications. Recent models feature improved aerodynamics and advanced safety systems.